The Daily Sentinel.

VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1867. NO. 46.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

From the New York Herald.

WHAT THE RADICALS SUPPOSED—WHAT THEY HAVE FOUND.

They supposed that they were the nation; that they owned in fee simple all the magnificent vote on which they carried the country; that they could do what they pleased, and owed no respect whatever to the people. So each leader fell to saddling the party with some vanity of his own—one with prohibitory tariff, another with compulsory temperance, a third with suffrage for women, while all the old abolition, nigger-worshipping clique clamored that the only thing wanting for the millennium was to give votes to the Southern niggers, and take them away from the Southern white men.

Just as each leader was trying to fasten his own great "idea" to the party principles the party began to bear from the people again. There came an election in Connecticut, in which the Republican voters stayed at home and permitted their ticket to be beaten. There came another in Vermont, in which the victory was far from inspiriting; another in Maine, showing a great decrease in Republican majorities; while far away California matched Connecticut with positive victory for that some time unheard of thing, an opposition. Maryland showed the case even more clearly. Her people voted on a constitution made in a spirit very distinctly hostile to all this nigger suffrage tendency, and it was seen that her Republican voters would not declare against that constitution, but permitted it to be carried by a very large majority.—All these warnings have begun to open the eyes of the Radicals, who supposed they owned the country, and now fill them with natural alarm. Their demoralization is most apparent in Albany. Radical leaders there hold in their hands the constitution made this summer before their eyes were opened—the constitution containing the whole Radical scheme, negro suffrage and all. It is a white elephant that they know not what to do with—an infernal machine that may at any moment blow them all to pieces. They have made this constitution, and they dare not submit it to the people; for it is a dead certainty that to go before the people now with such a programme would be certain destruction; that it would revolutionize the State; and that the last vestige of Radicalism would be swept away in a whirlwind of popular vengeance. Worse than all, it is impossible for them to hide or even disguise their dilemma. To burke this constitution, as some propose, would be as bad as to present it; and to present it would be evident ruin. In their fright, in their consternation, in the general demoralization that has seized upon these crazy leaders, is seen the certainty of the triumph of popular ideas by a tremendous majority in our next election. The people will not go before the accepted amendment to the national Constitution, and the party that asks their votes on that basis will win.

A NIGGER IN THE FENCE.

The State Constitutional Convention has adjourned until one week after the State election; thus openly telling the public that it is afraid at present to go before the people on such points as are put in that instrument, especially the point of negro suffrage. This is an attempt to dodge popular indignation; but the people will have to give such a majority against the Republican party, on even a bare ticket, that the leaders will be startled out of their wild notions into something like political decency, and then we may have a constitution presented eventually with something in it that the people wish there.—N. Y. Herald.

VOTING POWER OF THE TWO RACES IN THE SOUTH.

Except as to the final opening and revision of the registration lists, which it is not thought will materially alter results, complete returns have been received from Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi and Virginia. These returns show the following results: In Alabama the total number of voters registered is 160,995, of whom 72,737 are whites and 88,248 blacks—a colored majority of 15,511. In Georgia the total registration is 188,720, of whom 95,303 are whites and 93,417 blacks—a white majority of 1,886. In Louisiana the total is 127,588, the whites numbering 44,738 and the blacks 82,855—a colored majority of 38,142. In Mississippi the total is 122,172, of whom 51,154 are whites and 70,019 blacks—a colored majority of 17,865. In Virginia the total is 216,247, of whom 115,157 are whites and 101,490 blacks—a white majority of 13,667. In Florida, Arkansas, the Carolinas and Texas registration still continues. In Florida, at last accounts, 4 773 whites and 9,338 blacks had registered—a colored majority of 4,655 In North Carolina 44,508 whites and 40,605 blacks—a white majority of 3,903. In South Carolina 21,176 whites and 46,019 blacks—a colored majority of 24,843. Estimates are made of Arkansas and Texas of 40,000 whites and 35,000 negroes—a white majority of 5,000 for the former; and 40,000 whites and 50,000 blacks—a colored majority of 10,000 for the latter. The grand total of the registry throughout the South, as far as it has been made, foots up 535,080 whites and 617,316 blacks—a colored majority of 92,236, and a total registry of 1,142,396 voters of both colors.

ILLEGAL MILITARY ORGANIZATIONS.

We referred to the fact, some weeks since, that in many counties where the emissaries of the Radical party have established secret, oath-bound negro societies, the negroes, in flagrant violation of an act of Congress, have organized and are secretly drilling militia companies and regiments. The investigation of a commission of magistrates in Hanover has collected indisputable proof of such an organization in that county.

We learn that at the last county court of King William, the justices appointed one of their number to deliver in person to General Schofield, their complaint of similar illegal and insurrectionary organizations in that county. The negroes in this county, although admonished by the agent of the Bureau to disband, have contemptuously disregarded his orders and are in the habit of drilling publicly and privately. They have a militia organization, with field and company officers, and are violating a law which the military are required to enforce.

There is upon the part of General Schofield a firm and inflexible determination to crush these illegal organizations, and steps will, we doubt not, be immediately taken to collect evidence, which if it establishes the existence of these negro companies and regiments, will be followed by the arrest and trial of the ringleaders. It is a singular fact that a law of Congress, which was enacted by the Radicals to prevent the organization of white militia companies, has been repeatedly violated by the freedmen, and in no instance by the whites!—Richmond Examiner.

INSURANCE COMPANY.

New Features and Advantages Which are Known as Belonging to no Other Company in the United States.

THE MANAGEMENT OF THIS COMPANY IS upon the Mutual Benefit System—the accumulated profits going to the assured.

This company makes a special deposit with the Insurance Department of the State, for which Registered policies are issued if desired, countersigned by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of the State of New York, certifying that such policies are secured by pledge of public stocks.

No other Company gives the assured a guarantee of this character or anything equivalent.

Thirty days' of grace are allowed on all renewed premiums, and the policy remains valid and in full force during that time.

No restrictions as to travel or residence abroad at any season of the year, outside the tropics, which gives a nearly world-wide and unconditional policy.

No higher rate of premium charged for stationary Engineers, Conductors, Baggage Masters, Mail Agents, nor in consequence of change of employment after the policy is issued.

Notes are not required by this Company, but a loan may be obtained on the policy for one third of the annual premium, which is cancelled by the profits applied as dividends.

Joint policies, including man and wife, are issued by this Company, and the amount insured is payable to the survivor on the death of either.

Our dividend, January 1st. 1866, was 45 per cent.

Dividends are declared annually, and paid on settlement of 4th. Annual Premium, on all our plans upon the full amount of premiums received.

Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

All policies issued by this Company are non-forfeiting, after two, in some instances, and three annual payments in others.

The per centage of premium receipts in 1865, over 1864, was 251 per cent; which is nearly double that of any other New York company.

Policies incontestable from any cause except on account of fraud.

[REPORTED FOR THE SENTINEL.]

Grand Rally of the Conservatives AT RALEIGH.

THE MASSES OF THE PEOPLE WITH THE MOVEMENT.

The Largest Meeting held in the Court House since the War Began!!

In pursuance of a previous call, the citizens of Raleigh assembled on Friday night, the 27th inst., at the Court House, for the purpose of giving expression to their sentiments on the present aspect of affairs in this State, and indicating what policy they regarded as best for the whole people.

The spacious Court room was crowded to its utmost capacity; indeed, no such local assemblage has been seen here since the time when party contests were warm and the masses enthusiastic.

On motion, Rev. W. E. Pell was chosen President, with J. D. Royster, J. J. Overby and P. C. Fleming as Vice Presidents, and Jas. A. Moore and Jno. G. Bagwell, as Secretaries.

The Chairman, in explaining the object of the meeting, said: This movement originated with the working men. They had urged an earlier meeting, but he had counselled delay, until the sense of the people could be more fully ascertained. The movement was not partizan. It was not Democratic on the one hand, nor Republican on the other, much less was it Radical; but it was an uprising of the truly Conservative people, not to form a party at this time in the ordinary sense of that term, but to unite and consolidate the influence of the Conservative men of the State, to defeat, by every legitimate means, the evil schemes and purposes of the violent Radicals, in the matter of State re-organization. He had always maintained that true North Carolinians could not with propriety unite with any Northern party, until the State is restored to harmony with the Republic. Nor is it our purpose to form a 'white man's party.' Far from it. We are looking as closely to the interests of the colored people as of the whites, if they will heed our counsel.—We want no discord between the races, but a mutual good will—to pull together for the prosperity of each and the whole. It is with the colored population, alone, to say, whether there shall be a Black Man's party or a White Man's party in North Carolina. If it be true that the colored voters of the State intend to vote with and sustain the Radical party, then they will certainly make the Radical party a Black Man's party in spite of us; for in that case, the colored voters will constitute the large majority of the Radical party in this State. What will that necessitate? Why, of course, it will inevitably compel the coalescence of the white people into a White Man's party. But even then, the colored people will find us their truest friends, if they will allow us to be. We are Conservatives—the friends of the Constitution,—the friends of law, of order, of true progress, of humanity and virtue. The virtuous, and sober, and industrious colored people, will always find us their truest friends, whatever may come.

On motion of Capt. J. Q. DeCarteret, a Committee of nine was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the Conservative Union men of this City.

The President appointed Messrs. W. H. Jones, John C. Palmer, J. Q. DeCarteret, F. K. Strother, P. P. Williams, Jeptha Horton H. P. Tucker, Porter C. Steadman and W. T. Adams said Committee.

During the absence of the Committee, R. C. Badger, Esqr., in response to loud and continued calls, arose and proceeded to address the meeting.

Mr. Badger could not resist the strong call made upon him. He was glad to witness the large and enthusiastic response to the call for the meeting. It indicated deep concern in the masses of the people—that they were not asleep or indifferent to the imminent dangers of the government and of civil liberty. There was danger, imminent danger, and he was ready to do all in his power to aid in re-establishing, on a firm foundation, the Constitution and the Union, as the great bulwarks of civil liberty. But, Mr. R. said, his presence and readiness to respond to the call were, perhaps, more incidental than otherwise. His personal friend, Mr. Holden, had uttered the ejaculation, on seeing his name to the call, "Oh! Richard, is it possible?" He had come, therefore, to show that it was possible and how it was possible; that he should always be found standing shoulder to shoulder with the Constitutional Union men of the country. He had stood firmly with the Constitutional Union men,—with you, Mr. President, and thousands of others, before the war, up to the very last moment, until all hope was gone, and then he had buckled on his armor to defend the soil of his native South. That unfortunate contest is over, and now, with the friends of peace and Union, he was for a speedy reconstruction and an end of all conflict and discord. He stood now just where he stood before the war. He was a Constitutional Union man. His friend Holden was with him before the war, but where is he now? Who has maintained his consistency? Yes! it is possible, that "Richard" should differ with Mr. Holden, and does differ and will differ, when he takes ground against the interests of peace, of Constitutional liberty, and the true welfare of the people of his native State and the harmony of the Union. Mr. B. said, he stood with that incorruptible patriot, B. F. Moore, Esq., and called the attention of the audience to his late letter. He read it, and closed with a warm endorsement of it and the objects and aims of the Constitutional Union men.

Here the Committee returned, and Capt. DeCarteret presented and read the resolutions, which were received with applause.

Capt. DeC. felt proud to present a series of resolutions, which he believed would be received with acclamation throughout the length and breadth of the State. Radicals, of course, would not endorse them, but the bitterest Radical would not find a word in them which he could successfully gainsay. He could not dwell upon them; it would consume too much time; but they were so clear and so easily understood it was not needful. He was fully committed to the doctrines they taught, and would stand with the Conservatives of the State in their laudable efforts to promote the ends of peace, and secure the prosperity of the State.—He was opposed to the designs of North Carolina ultra Radicals. He was a friend of the colored race—he would do what he could to promote their true interests, but he could not forget, and would not conceal his sentiments, that this government was the purchase of the blood and sacrifice of the white race—had been preserved and sustained by them, and he believed it was their province to govern it. He was not opposed to the rights of the colored man, but he should ever oppose negro supremacy in this State and in the Union.

The resolutions were then taken up and adopted unanimously, as follows:

Resolved, That the Conservative men of Wake County, claiming to be truly loyal to the Government of the United States, feel called upon to declare our unwavering devotion to the fundamental principles of American liberty, as embodied in the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence of May 20th, 1775, the Declarstion of American Independence of July 4th, 1776, and in the Constitution of the United States.

Resolved, That the will of the people, as expressed in the "Constitution of the United States and the laws," we hold to be "the supreme law of the land."

Resolved, That we deem it unwise, wicked and unjust for the State of North Carolina to pass any law, organic or statutory, disfranchising, proscribing or confiscating the property of any of her citizens for past political offences.

Resolved, That the unmistakable developments of a vindictive and persecuting spirit in the speeches and doings of a majority of the delegates to the late Radical Convention in this city, towards the body of the white people of this State, call for the unanimous efforts of all truly Conservative men, of all classes, whether white or colored, to endeavor to check the progress of that spirit, and to defeat the aims of those bad men among us, who seek to destroy the peace of our people, to stir up strife between the whites and blacks, and to inaugurate a state of things in North Carolina, which must effectually prevent immigration, check the investment of capital, destroy confidence in all business enterprise, and diminish largely the sources of employment to our large laboring population.

Resolved, That our movement is not partisan in its character—that it has no connection with National politics or either of the great National parties, nor is it designed to form a White man's party, but originates in the spontaneous uprising of the Conservative men of the State, of all shades of political opinion, for the one object of warding off the dangers which threaten us from the success of the ultra Republican or Radical party in this State; and we hail, as a hopeful indication, the manly and more moderate stand taken in the aforesaid Radical Convention by the calm and moderate Republicans of that body, as well as the dignified and manly positions since taken by Daniel R. Goodloe, Esq., of the Register, and his condjutors.

Resolved, That we will support no man for the approaching State Convention, to draw up a new Constitution, who is not pledged to oppose and defeat, by all legitimate means, any attempt to incorporate into the Constitution the proscriptive and vindictive measures of the ultra Radicals of this State.

Resolved, That we urge upon all Conservative men, of all classes and all shades of opinion in the State, to hold precinct and County meetings, for the purpose of concentrating their influence in effecting this object; and we call upon our fellow citizens of this County to hold precinct meetings in their several registration precincts, for the purpose of expressing their views and uniting with us in a Mass Meeting in this City, to be held on Saturday, the 12th of October next.

Col. Russ was then loudly called for:—He arose and said, in substance, (for no one, without a lightning apparatus, and the thunder besides, could report such a speech,) he fully endorsed the objects of the meeting and signed the call, but had not expected to be present, but for the attention which his quondam friend of the Standard had bestowed upon him. He had known him thirty years and knew him well. His attack upon other signers to this call was amusing—he had been greatly amused at the attack upon himself, but the marked malice of the man, and his proclivity to lying, could be seen in almost every line of his attack upon him. He could not therefore let him pass. He had been charged with the ungentlemanly practice of swearing. He acknowledged he was guilty of the ungentlemanly and foolish habit. He regretted it, and thought he would have cured it long ago, if he had never known Holden. Holden, it was well known, had lived upon lying—had made all he was worth by lying upon the gentlemen of this State. His proclivity to lying had greatly promoted in him, (Col. Russ,) the foolish habit of swearing. Holden had charged him with cursing his God and his Redeemer. That could only be made true, by Holden's proving that he (Holden) was his (Col Russ') God and Redeemer; for he admitted he had pretty effectually cursed Holden. He had been charged with being a "foul-mouthed rebel." It was not necessary that he should defend his Unionism before this audience. He was ready to compare records with any one. As to Holden, he was the father of secession in North Carolina, and even after he professed to be a Union man, he was the hardest man to keep on the track he had ever undertaken to manage. Holden had charged him with wanting to save his negroes. I admit, said Colonel Russ, I did want to save my negroes, for I was attached to them and they to me. I have trusted them and they had generally proven true. But as they have been taken from me, and as my purse is pretty low, I should like to have the money for them. Holden wanted to save his, too, and, therefore, before the danger came, he sent two of his off, hand-cuffed to Georgia to be sold, tearing them from their wives and children. He couldn't sell them there, as I learn, because they were too white, and might be in some way akin to their master. Holden had talked about his hiding from the dangers of war, &c. That was a pretty thing from a man who was kept in continual fear at his shadow; who, upon the slightest indication of danger from a Confederate, would streak away from home at all hours to evade his own shadow. Often at late hours, would my servant girl come to my door, and say, in a low voice, "Master! Master, Mr. Holden's come," and I have taken him in. His friends, anxious to learn his whereabouts, would come to my house and in a low whisper say: "Is Holden here?" And he to talk about a man's hiding. But the speaker had no desire to dwell upon such a subject—his full dissection would consume too much time. But as to the cursing part, Col. Russ said he would be glad to quit it. He did not approve of or defend the habit, but if Holden would sign a bond or a pledge, and give good security, that he would never again lie on any respectable gentleman in the State, he, Russ, would do the same, pledging himself to quit cursing. But we cannot pretend to give a report of the speech. The Colonel kept the house in almost a constant roar of laughter.

M. A. Bledsoe, Esq., was then loudly called for. Mr. B. was reluctant to speak. He was a disfranchised man, had retired from the political arena and expected never again to take part in party politics. He loved far more the retirement of a planter, and only desired to be allowed to pursue his vocation unmolested. But the objects of this meeting had drawn him out.—He heartily sympathised in the movement and endorsed the resolutions. He was a Conservative man—believed in Conservative constitutional measures, and was opposed to the ultra and vindictive measures of the ultra Radicals of this State. He warned the colored people against the machinations of demagogues, and secret political Leagues, whose designs were patent—who sought their own promotion and cared nothing for the black man. He was opposed to party pledges or party affiliation at this time with either of the great parties of the country. Never could the Southern people properly enter into either party, until the full rehabilitation of the Southern States and the restoration of full harmony and concord in the Union. He desired to see that time and that great object effected, in the best way for the honor and prosperity of the nation and of his own people. He entered into a very interesting course of argument and illustration, to show the colored people the hazards they ran, by yielding to the solicitations to join the Radical party or any other party at this time. If they should persist in listening to the suggestions of the enemies of both Southern whites and Southern blacks, which could not fail to produce alienation between the races, and should they all join the Radical party and thus make it a Black Man's party, they might expect, as a necessary consequence, a White Man's party,—a result which every true friend of the negro must deprecate and deplore. Mr. B's. remarks were able and timely, but we cannot do justice to him by any report we can make.

Maj. Gales was then vociferously called for:

Mr. Gales commenced by expressing his gratification at the character of this demonstration. It was an evidence that there was "life in the old land yet;" that the succession of discouragements, humiliations and bitter experiences, through which we had passed, had not quenched our desire and determination to restore North Carolina, if possible, to something like her former prosperity; had not crushed out our devotion to the principles of constitutional liberty or extinguished all the manhood in us.

He combatted, at some length, the idea, honestly entertained by some of our friends, who, while heartily sympathizing with the objects sought to be accomplished by this movement, were inclined to think it premature. His greatest fear was that, possibly, it might be too late. He saw no reason, as apprehended by some, that the effect would be to discourage the moderate Republicans or to close the breach between the two wings of the Radical or Republican party. It would be to discredit the honesty and sincerity of the moderate Republicans to suppose that such would be the case. Almost invariably, they were men of consistent Union records, honest in their convictions and principles, with "no enemies to punish;" while, on the other hand, nine-tenths of the ultra, vindictive and proscriptive Radicals were men who had done more than others to involve us in our present troubles, and had now turned State's evidence and were willing to see their neighbors punished, in order to screen their own heads. He saw no reason why—without either sacrificing their distinctive views on general questions of public policy—the moderate Republicans and Conservatives, in the existing emergency, might not unite in one common, earnest effort to rescue the State from the perils which menace it. While saying this, he wished it understood that he could never be a Republican by party affiliation, or in any possible party sense. For instance, while counselling obedience to and a faithful carrying out of the Reconstruction Acts, he could not believe that they were wise, just, generous or Constitutional; he could never consent, so far as he had any volition in the matter, to the virtual consolidation of all the powers of the government in the legislative department, or to the doctrine that the States had not the right to regulate their own domestic concerns; and, above all, so long as he had a voice to utter anything, he would not proclaim, by that voice, or any act of his, that his neighbors and friends, and those gallant spirits with whom he had stood shoulder to shoulder, during four years of bloody strife, were traitors.

Mr. Gales, alluding to the imputation that he had forfeited his parole by participating in this meeting, repelled the insinuation indignantly. He had sworn to obey the laws, and he should do so and counsel others to do so; but he had not sworn away his freedom of conscience or liberty of judgment. Even the meanest malefactor had the right to think harshly of the law under which he suffered.

Mr. G. touched on several other points, but want of time forbids further abstract.

On motion of Mr. Badger, the Chairman was requested to appoint a Committee of five, to prepare an address to the people of the State, urging their co-operation in this movement.

The Chairman gave notice that he would name the Committee hereafter.

On motion, the Secretaries were requested to furnish a copy of the proceedings to the Sentinel and Progress, with a request that papers throughout the State, favorable to the objects of the meeting, copy the same.

The greatest harmony, good order and enthusiasm prevailed in all the deliberations of the meeting.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

W. E. PELL, President.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

NEWBERN, Sept. 28th, 1867.

FREEDMEN IN AND AROUND NEWBERN.

By courtesy of Col. Stephen D. Moore, Superintendent of the 3rd. Sub-District of the Freedman's Bureau, which includes the counties of Craven, Carteret, Onslow, Beaufort, Hyde, Pitt, and Jones, we have been permitted to examine his official report of the operations of the Bureau in the aforesaid counties from the 1st. of July last to the 25th. inst.

From this report, which embraces a variety of subjects connected with the seven counties in the 3rd. Sub-District, we glean the following facts and extracts, which may be useful to your readers at large, and of interest to "those here present:"

The whole number of rations issued during this period was 25,047, or 4,999 whites and 20,048 blacks. These rations were furnished by the Bureau proper; in addition to which we find 6,400 lbs. of pork, and 44,800 lbs. of corn, issued by the Bureau, but provided for by Congressional legislation of March 30, '67. The Bureau rations were to white "loyal" and black freedmen. The Congressional to white and black, irrespective of politics.

COUNTY POOR HOUSES.

But the Bureau begins to play out. By an unfortunate mismanagement some little part of the expense is bound to come out of Northern burglar proof safes, and poor devils' rags; so the thing "is'nt as popular as it used to was." The rations have been whittled down to a point. Your correspondent has seen a poor decrepit creature with a child at each knee, and two or three at home keeping house, but worse than all a dead husband lying under the grain field of some wealthy planter on the hills "round Richmond;" this woman, praying nightly to be permitted to join an "absent one," and then reproaching herself for wishing to desert the fatherless starvelings, who cuddle in innocent couples upon the cabin floor, we have seen bending, in unnecessary timidity, before the Bureau agent, for a pint of meal and a half pound of bacon. Did she get it? Cela depend! If Congressional supplies permit, perhaps. If they run low—no.

It may, therefore, afford consolation to rich Confederates to know that "Reports from Wardens of the poor in Beaufort, Pitt, Hyde, and Craven, state that they are able and willing to support all the poor without regard to color who may properly belong to their counties."

LADIES' NORTHERN AID SOCIETY.

Looking over Col. Moore's letter book, we find that certain parties in Boston had contributed an amount for the relief of the poor and destitute in North Carolina, (query—was this the "Southern relief fund?") which amount was entrusted to Messrs. Gen. N. A. Miles, W. W. Holden and R. W. Pulliam, who, thereupon, issued a circular, (a copy of which we have seen,) calling upon the Bureau agents in the different Sub-Districts to organize societies to take charge of and distribute the funds awarded to their respective Districts. Whereupon, the "Ladies Northern Aid Society" was organized in Newbern, with a capital of $300, which, we are informed, they judiciously expended upon the sick and destitute of the vicinage, in the shape of food and clothing.

UNFORTUNATES.

Notwithstanding these public and private contributions, there are, says Col. Moore, a number of unfortunates, such as blind, deaf and dumb, cripples, &c., who, as a class, are most neglected; as there is no asylum for them, and no rations are issued; so they are thrown upon the charity of a poor population. (He refers to blacks we suppose,—the relics of the "Grandest army on the Planet.") This class has not suffered much as yet, as they have been receiving rations from the Bureau until about a month ago. But there seems to be no provision for this class for the future.

SCHOOLS.

The schools opened by Northern women were closed on the 1st. July. The effects of their labor are visible in many forms; the negroes buying and reading books, newspapers, &c. (Undoubtedly this is so. We have had repeated application for old books and papers, by negroes who have recently learned to read.)

FREEDMEN'S SAVING AND TRUST COMPANY.

This institution, it seems, is under the supervision of the Bureau. It did not pay expenses at first; but with Rev. (?) A. A. Ellsworth as President, Secretary, Treasurer and Cashier, has already accumulated something like twelve thousand dollars of freedmen's earnings. The blacks seem to be getting enthusiastic on the subject. Old silver finds it way from hidden hiding places to Ellsworth's safe. Bonds, long since due, gladden Ellsworth's eyes and scissors. "La! Mr. Sugg, wat a peculiar people!"

REGISTRATION.

Partial returns show—Beaufort County—1,333 whites to 896 blacks. Carteret County 832 whites to 609 blacks. Craven County 1,822 whites and 2,940 blacks. Pitt County 441 whites to 562 blacks.

ADMINISTRATION OF STATE LAWS.

"State laws are now administered with justice and without discrimination to the prejudice of free persons of color. Only three cases have occurred under the civil rights bill, (the cases of Messrs. Smith, Cumbro, and Harrison vs. Peter Gardiner, tried at a recent term of the United States Commissioner's Court.")

PUNISHMENTS.

"There has been no crime, nor unusual punishment awarded, nor inflicted in this sub-district, the civil authorities, as at present constituted, showing a disposition to award justice to all, irrespective of color. This laudable state of affairs is no doubt the effect of the vigilance and energy of Maj. Van Horn, in removing the disloyal (?) and incompetent (!) and appointing proper (ahem!) persons in their place."

FREE LABOR SYSTEM.

"The free labor system is working well.—The Freedmen understand their rights, and show less hesitation in making contracts, at a distance from Bureau Headquarters, than heretofore."

VAGRANCY, &c.

"There are many idle colored people loitering around Newbern, and other towns in this sub-district, who will not go into the country to work, but prefer to earn a living by what little odd jobs they can do, and by pilfering. But the majority of the negroes work hard and earn a living"——

SELF VS. WAGES.

"They are all anxious to own land and often stand in their own light, by working two and three acres of land for themselves in preference to hiring out at $12 per month and board. Wages range, for able bodied men, from $10 to $15, and from $4 to $8 for women and board.

COMMENTS ON COL. MOORE'S REPORT.

It will be seen most of the extracts given above are taken verbatim et literatim from the official report regarding the seven Counties in North Carolina which contain the strongest "secession element" and the greatest number of negroes.

The Superintendent of the Bureau, a Northern man, long the Commandant of Elmira prison pen; surrounded by Radicals of the blackest dye; with a score of idle negroes tugging at his heels to complain of "insults,"—this gentleman (for he is a gentleman, fair minded and singularly unprejudiced) places upon record, in his official report, that in this hot bed of former slavery the State laws are impartially administered without prejudice to the blacks; there are no unnecessary punishments; good wages are given; the Registrars are well treated, &c. We invite the attention of Northern correspondents, and Radical falsifiers in our own State, the Tribune, Forney's press, "and such," to the statements as given.

ROBINSON'S CIRCUS

has been here for the past two days. It is perhaps the best that has been along this way since the war; but all reflecting minds will regret that any has come at all. Castello carried away $6,000 from the pockets of the poorest classes in the city. The next winter there was suffering in many hovels on account of it. Mike Lipman did the same. Robinson will take away from $2,000 to $3,000. The writer saw forty men get on at a station on the A. & N. C. R. R., half of whom (white) asked to be trusted for their railroad fare—had just enough money to buy a ticket! "That's the way the money goes!" R. A. S.

IMPORTANT TO CAROLINA SHIPPERS.

THE NEW

Baltimore and Carolina Grand Trunk

FREIGHT LINE,

VIA PETERSBURG, VA.,

Comprising the following great Freight Routes:

THE POWHATAN

Steamboat Company's Freight Line of Steamers,

PETERSBURG AND WELDON,

RALEIGH AND GASTON,

NORTH CAROLINA,

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,

WILMINGTON AND WELDON,

ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,

WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER.

CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,

And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Winnsboro', Columbia, Sumterville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near these great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh, Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c. &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small. Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wool, Bacon, Lard, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

☞ To insure transportation over this Inland Fast Line mark all goods, whether Northward or Southward bound, "VIA PETERSBURG."

☞ Freight landed in Baltimore day following delivery to the Steamers.

Through Receipts are given and fixed rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways.

☞ Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

N. B.—With regard to last named points, freight is forwarded to and from Petersburg by Philadelphia and N. Y. Steamers.

For rates and all further information, apply to any Freight Agent on the Line, or at the

THE SENTINEL.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1867.

THE GREAT MEETING.

In all the elements of an earnest popular demonstration, the Conservative meeting was a great success. Numbers, intelligence, all classes of the community,—especially the working men,—the old and the young, and men of all former shades of political opinion, were there and deeply interested in the purposes and deliberations of the movement. It was a source of gratification, also, to see so many of our colored friends in attendance, apparently much pleased with the proceedings and giving a respectful attention to all that was said and done.

We have never seen a finer spirit in any assemblage or a larger attendance at any merely local meeting.

It remains, now, for all friends of the Constitution and the Union in this State—all who are opposed to the violent schemes of ultra-Radicalism,—to follow up this auspicious movement in the right temper and spirit. Let them combine, organize, and work at once, and vigorously; and we may yet save the State, without transgressing the literal requirements of Congress, from the clutches of those who would degrade her and oppress her people!

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Gwynn, Cotten & Co., Cotton Factors and General Commission Merchants: No. 105 West Lombard St., Baltimore. We heartily commend this firm to our North Carolina farmers and merchants. It will be seen that it is made up of gentlemen already well and favorably known to our people.

The New Baltimore and Carolina Grand Trunk Freight Line: Powhatan Steamboat Co., 90 Light St. Wharf, Baltimore. The time is quick, the freight low, and the connections are complete and perfect with the Great Freight Routes of the South.

Mitchell, Allen & Co: Labor Saving Pump, Agricultural Ware House, &c.

Carpet Tacks, Tire Iron, Cast Steel, &c.: J. Brown (with Hart & Lewis)

BROUGHT FOR TRIAL.—Messrs. Hall, Lutterloh, Leggett and Ed. P. Powers, the gentlemen who have been for some time confined in Fort Macon on the ground of an alleged conspiracy in the Bebee case, have been brought to this City. We presume the military trial will commence in this City in the course of a few days.

WE ARE pained to learn that dispatches were received in this City, on Saturday, announcing the death, in Houston, on Friday, by the yellow fever, of Jno. A. Allen, son of our friend, Col. C. B. Allen. The afflicted family have the sympathy of the community.

REGISTRATION. The summing up of Registration in Orange is: Whites 1,937, Blacks 1,274.

The white majority in the County of Carteret is 430.

A Mass meeting of the Conservatives of Anson is to held in Wadesboro, on the 15th of October, (Tuesday of Court Week.)

SPEECH OF JOHN A. LOGAN, AT CINCINNATI.—A mass meeting was held this evening (Sept. 24) in Court street square, and addressed by General John A. Logan. It was much larger and more enthusiastic than Ben Wade's meeting on Saturday, and there was quite a display of torches and rockets. A loud call of "Logan, Logan," was shouted the moment the General made his appearance. His speech, chiefly of the stereotyped radical kind, was filled with abuse of rebels and democrats and glorification of republicans. He said the South was not entitled to representatives in Congress; that its people had forfeited their rights and deserved to be hung, and that the republicans were determined to keep them from attaining to any power in the Government. After making out a long list of every heinous offences against Andrew Johnson, he declared himself for impeachment, and for hurling the President as Lucifer was from the battlements of heaven into the pit of hell. He was also in favor of impeaching the democratic party and challenged their right to the franchise. Speaking of the Philadelphia Convention committee that went from that city to call on the President, the General went through a theatrical imitation of a hiccupping inebriate making a speech, intended to represent the President replying to Reverdy Johnson. Though a most disgusting caricature, it was received with unqualified admiration by the audience. The rest of the General's speech had no point of any importance.

It is a curious fact that news from South America comes now by way of England. Yankee enterprise has not yet established a line of steamers with South American ports and the British lines bring to London the items which are conveyed by the Atlantic cable.

The Roman people have been greatly excited by an eagle alighting on the clock of the Palazzo Citorio, where it perched all night, despite the efforts of the police to drive him away. It was regarded as a presage of the advent of the eagles of the Republic.

STATE NEWS.

——The Wilmington Journal says that the amount of taxes, paid into the State Treasury by the Sheriff of New Hanover, a few days since, was $22,903.16.

——The Petersburg Index mentions the receipt, in that market, of more new cotton from North Carolina. It says:

"The first bale of new cotton from Halifax county, N. C., was yesterday received and sold by Messrs. Branch & Herbert. The bale weighed about three hundred and fifty pounds, was raised by Joseph W. Kimball, of Halifax, and purchased by Messrs. Davis, Roper & Co., Spinners.

Messrs. Jones & Plummer received and sold the first new bale of cotton from Warren County, N. C. Messrs. Davis, Roper & Co. purchased it for their new mill on Canal Street. It weighed three hundred and thirty pounds, and was raised by Mr. Robert C. Twitty, near Manson, on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad. Before the war, Warren county raised no cotton for market. The staple is now cultivated to a considerable extent, and the present crop promises well."

—— The Norfolk Journal furnishes the following particulars of the recent Halifax elopement, of which mention has already been made in the Sentinel:

"Several of our exchanges are publishing exaggerated accounts of the elopement of Mrs. Solomon, wife of W. J. Solomon, Commonwealth's Attorney for Halifax county, with one W. J. Walker, formerly of this city, but more recently a clerk in the office of Mr. S. The Weldon News, after detailing the facts of the elopement, says:

It is darkly hinted that undue influences were brought to bear on the lady by Walker; that to accomplish his designs of, ruining her character and destroying the happiness of her devoted husband he drugged her, and thus the more easily made her the victim of his wiles.

Mr. Solomon was informed of the affair from Petersburg, and reached that city on Saturday last, with the intention of pursuing the fugitives, but afterwards concluded to leave them to their own folly. He has returned to his home—home no longer, since she who should fill the place of wife had deserted it for the home or wanderings of another. Mr. Solomon has been married ten years, and is without issue. Mrs. S. is said to have been one of the most beautiful and accomplished ladies in this section, and with wealth and comfort around her, we cannot conceive what induced her to leave the home of a devoted husband."

——One of the candidates put forward by the Red Strings, in Anson county, informed a citizen last week, that all that the delegates who should go to the approaching State Convention would have to do, when they got there, would be to sign the Constitution; it would be made ready to their hand. "Either he is right," says the Wadesboro Argus, "and knows that Thad. Stevens or Billy Holden has a constitution already prepared, or else he is very ignorant or a big fool and needs enlightenment."

—— A correspondent, writing us from Wilkes county, gives the following account of "sharp practice" on the part of a set of rascals, who have been passing though that country:

"There were four of them in company,—having two wagons, and two horses to each wagon. They said they were sent from Knoxville through this section to change old feathers for new ones, to make mattresses for themselves. They had some old steelyards, that they could make weigh what they pleased. After getting feathers, they left money (mainly counterfeit) with the owners, until they could go to a depot and have their feathers telegraphed for to Tennessee and brought from Knoxville to Statesville. They were to be back in a week, and that is the last of them,—feathers and all! Many houses are entire destitute of feathers, and the families are too poor to get more. This is really a more serious matter than would appear at first blush."

THE NASHVILLE DIFFICULTY.—The controversy in regard to the Municipal election in Nashville has assumed a definite shape. Mayor Brown, backed by the masses of the citizens and sustained by the opinions of such eminent and renowned lawyers as Neill S. Brown, John Lirett, H. S. Foot, John C. Gant, and W. F. Cooper, has determined to maintain the rights of the citizens under the municipal charter, at all hazards. On the other hand Brownlow's commissioner of registration has announced his determination to execute Brownlow's proclamation, "if it required all the militia and regulars to back him." It is possible that he may find the "regulars" confronting his militia and compelling them to keep the peace.—National Intelligencer.

THE LUNACY OF FORNEY.—It is at once ludicrous and pitiable to note the condition to which Forney has been reduced by terror and the dark shadows of the approaching dissolution of the Radical party. He has become stark mad upon the subject of the organization of the "Maryland militia," and writes several columns per day to prove that it is the determination of the President to employ this formidable body to expel Congress. Indeed, Forney, since his return from Europe, has been engulphed in a sea of trouble; for there is a movement on foot in Pennsylvania to either tax or kill dogs, and Forney lives in Pennsylvania.—Rich Examiner.

We are pained to learn from our South Carolina exchanges that Henry Timrod, the poet, is now seriously ill. He has suffered from severe hemorrhages and is much debilitated, but we trust from the bottom of our heart that this noble genius may soon be restored, not only to his friends but to the South, whose literature he has adorned with some of the most exquisite lyrics. Had he been born in Boston his name would have been a household word in America.

IMPEACHMENT.—The Washington correspondent of the Springfield Republican says: "Unless all signs fail, the House will start off with an impeachment debate in November, and when the vote comes up on adoption of articles of impeachment, I do not see how it is possible for them to be rejected. I cannot think of one prominent Republican in the House who will speak against their adoption. Wilson, of Iowa, was against impeachment, but is not now."

THE DIFFERENCE.—When a negro offers himself for Congress, much to the discomfiture of the Loyal League, he generally begins his pronunciamento thus: "I shall do all I can to ameliorate the condition of the whites."

When one of the Southern renegades aspires to office, his record is tantamount to this avowal: "I shall do all I can to ameliorate my own condition and brutify the condition of my race."—Augusta Constitutionalist.

The President has not yet decided to grant General Sickles' request for a court of inquiry. The probability is that Sickles will be mustered out of service as Major-General in the volunteer service and assigned to the command of his regiment as Colonel in the regular army.

Saturday Evening Dispatches.

RECONSTRUCTION IN LOUISIANA—VOTE ON CONVENTION.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 28, M.

The Republican has full returns of the votes, to-day, in the 1st, 2nd and 3rd municipal Districts of this city. In the first district there were 2,540; 2nd 2,253; 3rd 2,327—Total 7,000. Nearly all the votes cast were for a Convention.

The number of registered voters in these districts is 24,237.

The Republican expresses apprehension that, unless the vote should be heavier next day, the proposition for a Convention will fail—the law requiring a majority of the registered voters to vote or the election fails.

FRAZER, TRENHOLM & CO.—MR. DAVIS' TRIAL. SHANKS GONE TO RICHMOND.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28, M.

The settlement of Frazer, Trenholm & Co. is entirely satisfactory to this Government. The defendants' Counsel acknowledge the correctness of the principle claimed by the Government, and have provided for securing the sums claimed. Further action, however, is necessary in the Federal and British Courts.

Judge Underwood and Attorney Chandler are consulting relative to the trial of Mr. Davis, whose friends and bondsmen represent him as being anxious for trial.

Congressman Shanks has gone to Richmond, in pursuit of evidence regarding the treatment of Federal prisoners.

THE OHIO CAMPAIGN—THE UNITED STATES SENATORSHIP.—It has leaked out that the visit of Chief Justice Chase to Ohio has another object besides that of contributing to the success of the Republican ticket at the approaching election. The Legislature to be chosen next month will elect a United States Senator to succeed Ben. Wade, who will be the candidate of the extreme Radicals. It is understood that Chase desires the election of ex-Governor Dennison; so, also, does Senator Sherman, who co-operates with Chase and the Jay Cooke interests. These will all work together to defeat Wade, and it is to give personal direction to the choice of Chase men to the Legislature that the Chief Justice has gone to Ohio.—Herald.

DRY GOODS.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!!

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS FOR 1867.

Old Prices Reached the City and Stopped at

A. CREECH'S,

R. SMITH'S CORNER,

Fayetteville Street.

I AM NOW RECEIVING MY FALL AND WINTER Stock of

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods,

And I can say, with safety, that I have one among the largest and most complete stocks that has ever been brought to this City, either before or since the war,—embracing almost any and everything suitable for Ladies' and Gentlemen's wear.

CALICOES, 10, 12½, 15, and 18 cents per yard.

FRENCH MERINOS, 75 cts. to $1,25 per yard.

DELAINES, POPLINS, and a great variety of other Dress Goods, embracing all the new novelties of the season, and will be sold cheap enough to insure sales.

BROWN DOMESTICS, 12½, 15 and 20 cts. per yard.

BLEACHED DOMESTICS, 12½, 15, 20 and 25 cts. per yard, and all other goods in proportion.

Also, the largest and most varied stock of

CLOTHS,
CASSIMERES,
SATINETS,
TWEEDS, AND KENTUCKY JEANS

I ever offered to the trade in this City, both as to price and quality.

Also a very fine assortment of White and Colored FLANNELS,

LADIES' CLOAKS,

BREAKFAST SHAWLS,
SQUARE AND LONG SHAWLS,

which will be sold at prices to suit my customers.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED HATS, new styles, from 50 cents to $4,00 each.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

The largest and best stock I ever brought to the City, consisting, in part, of J. Miles & Sons' make and others of equally high standing.

Ladies' Pegged Balmorals from $1 to $2.

Ladies Sewed Balmorals, from $1,50 to $3,50.

CREECH'S is the place to come to buy your Boots and Shoes.

Hats, Hats, Hats,

From 75 cts. to $4,00. Don't stop until you come to CREECH'S to buy your Hats. In fact, I think I can meet the expectations of all my customers and the public generally, both as to price and quality of ALL Goods.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "luck again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost;" some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold out my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in Store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to CREECH'S to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the privilege to say, I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to

A. CREECH'S,

HOME CERTIFICATES

From Physicians.

We hereby certify that the Rosadalis is prepared by a Physician, who is an experienced Pharmaceutist and Chemist, and that his remedy is as efficient and reliable one in SCROFULA, Syphilis, &c., it having performed some remarkable cures in this vicinity.

Edgecombe County, N. C., May 20, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Tertiary Syphilis, (one a terrible case of eight years' standing,) in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
A. D. NORLES, M. D.

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee—and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—[one tumor reached a large size.] The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

LATIMER WILLIAMS.

Rosadalis will cure the very worst cases of Chronic Rheumatism.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

Wilson, N. C., May 6th, 1867.

I hereby certify that I was cured of long standing Chronic Rheumatism, by taking four bottles of Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis.

JAMES WILLIS.

Rosadalis cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.

Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.

I hereby certify that, during the summer and fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles—having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.

Consumption, in its Early Stages, can be Cured.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 4th, 1867.

Dear Dr. Lawrence—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated cough of the lungs by your "Rosadalis," I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nearly two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the remedies used forte, gloss, Cyc, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was Consumption, beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physicians remain a stranger to relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis as a last which he did—imagine my surprise and gratification, when I found her appetite returning. Slowly she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually cease, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.

Yours respectfully,

Mrs. E. ANN SMITH.

THE SENTINEL.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1867.

THOU CANST NOT FORGET ME.

Thou canst not forget me, for memory will fling
Her light o'er oblivion's dark sea;
And whenever thou roamest a something will cling
To thy bosom, that whispers of me
Though the chords of thy spirit I now may not sweep,
Of thy touch they'll retrain a soft thrill,
Like the low undertone of the mournful voiced deep,
When the wind which has swept it, is still.

The love that is kept in the beauty of trust,
Cannot pass like the foam from the seas,
Or a mark that the finger hath traced in the dust,
When 'tis swept by the breath of the breeze;
That tell me, my love, thou wilt calmly resign,
Yet I know e'en while listening to them,
Thou wilt sigh for the heart that was linked unto thine
As a rosebud is linked to its stem.

Thou canst not forget me! too long thou has flung
Thy spirit's soft pinion o'er mine;
Too deep was the promise that round my lips clung,
As they softly responded to thine;
In the hush of the twilight, beneath the blue skies,
My presence will mantle thy soul,
And a feeling of sadness will rush to thine eyes
Too deep for thy manhood's control.

Thou mayest roam to thine own isle of beauty and fame,
Far, far from the land of the free,
Yet, each wind that floats round thee will murmur the name
That is softer than music to thee;
And when round thee darkly misfortunes shall crowd
Then'll think like the beautiful form
Of the rainbow that arches the thick tempest-cloud,
My love would have brightened the storm.

Thou canst not forget me—the passion that dwelt
In the depth of my soul, could not die,
With the memory of all thou hast murmured and felt,
In thy bosom 'twill slumbering lie;
Thou mayst turn to another and wish to forget,
But the wish will not bring thee repose,
For ah! thou wilt find that the thorn of regret,
Will be linked with the sweets of the rose.

THE MOSQUITO.

A writer in the Scientific American tells how the mosquito looks, what he does for a living, and how he is produced. It is an interesting sketch, but by no means a compensation for a mosquito bite, or the "small horror of his bugle horn." The writer says:

"It is unscientific to say that mosquitoes bite, for they have no teeth; and they have no need of teeth to seize upon or prepare their food, for they are dainty, and take food only in the liquid form—spoon victuals. They are a chivalric race, and attack their enemies with a sort of sword or lance; no doubt they consider biting and gouging quite vulgar. The lance of the mosquito is a very beautiful and perfect piece of work; it is smoother than burnished steel, and its point is so fine and perfect that the most powerful microscope does not discover a flaw in it. As the most delicate cambric needle is to a crowbar, so is the mosquito's lance to the best Damascus blade. The lance is worn in a scabbard or sheath, which in every respect is worthy of it; it is often ornamented with plumes. Man carries his sword at his side, and the mosquito on his head. The latter arrangement has manifest and wonderful advantages—the weapon is always en garde, and does not impede locomotion by getting entangled with the legs.

The lance and its sheath being on the head and being somewhat flexible is often called a proboscis. This view of the case is strengthened by the fact, that the scabbard is a suction pipe through which the mosquito drinks its food. As Moses struck the rock with his staff, so the mosquito with a thrust of his lance pierces the fountain, and the nectar, gushing into the scabbard, finds its way to the more sensitive and vital parts. But is not this calling the lance and scabbard a proboscis, thus likening the delicate mosquito to the monstrous elephant, a little far fetched?

The mosquito is the most musical of all animals. There is no bird which sings so much. He never tires of his simple song. Linnæus, out of compliment to the musical powers of the mosquito, named it Culex Pipiens. But there are those who say that the mosquito has no vocal organs, and that his notes are not music, but the sounds produced by the flapping of his wings, or by some other similar and purely mechanical movement. Have these detractors music in their souls?"

From the Dubuque Times.

A HORRIBLE PLAYTHING—AN ADDER PETTED BY A CHILD.

We often read of children and venomous snakes playing together, but we have never had a case come under our immediate observation until yesterday. In the afternoon two little daughters of Mr. C. C. Lieben, aged three and five years, respectively, were engaged in playing in the front yard of their home, on Iowa street, between Seventh and Eighth, when the oldest child ran into the house, and told the servant girl to run out and see to her sister, who was playing with a big snake. The servant thought nothing of it, and continued her work. In a few minutes the child again besought her to go right out, for the snake was hissing at 'sissy.' The girl went out, and was struck speechless and made to grow pale! On the brick walk, near the front gate, sat the little child laughing at and patting a huge snake on the head. The snake was coiled up like a spiral spring, and with elevated head and protruding fangs was allowing the child to play with it. It was a blackish monster, streaked and spotted with green. When the child would cease patting it, the snake would strike at the little one's hand, and stiffen as if preparing to jump at the child. Then the little one would tap its head, and it would lower its head and remain passive. The servant stood a moment unable to say a word. At last she shrieked for Mrs. Lieben, who came out. She also was seized with terror, but waited only a second before she seized her child and bore it away. A lady who resided next door, alarmed by the servant girl's cries, had now arrived upon the scene. Before the snake uncoiled itself, she threw a brick at it, which struck upon its head and stunned it. A man who was passing by then stepped in and killed the snake. It measured 38 inches in length, was of the kind known as the house adder, the bite or sting of which is said to be terribly poisonous. The child had a narrow escape from an awful death.

A LITTLE STORY.—President Lincoln used to tell this story of himself. He was riding one day on the top of a stage coach in Illinois, when the driver asked him to treat.

"I never use liquor," was Mr. Lincoln's reply, "and I cannot induce others to do so."

"Don't chew, neither?"

"No, sir."

"Nor smoke?"

"No, sir; I never use tobacco in any form."

"Well," replied the disgusted Jehu, "I hain't got much opinion of fellers with no small vices; I've allers noticed they make it up in big ones."

DRIVING COTTON GINS.

It is SIMPLE, STRONG and COMPACT, and can be easily put together. We sold a large number last season and the demand is constantly increasing.

The following letter from Col. Hoen, of Surry County, speaks for itself:

* * * * * It is with much pleasure that I state, your Gin Horse Power bought last season proved an entire success.

I applied a 13 feet lever and 6 feet band wheel to a 45 saw Gin, and one pair of ordinary mules which improved on constant work, and with slow gait of team gave sufficiency of speed; a capacity to gin about 4,000 per day.

The wear and tear in ginning 60 bales of cotton is not perceivable—do not think it could be estimated at 3 per cent. It was put up and geared by one of the best machinists in the State, who pronounced it superior to any patent he had seen; also, several gentlemen familiar by long use of gins, have examined it and decided to lay aside their old powers and order this pattern of you.

Yours, most respectfully, WM. H. HOOD.

PRICE, ONLY $65.

RAILROADS.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD
AND
NORTH CAROLINA
GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,

From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE-FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths of the ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD. This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORTS and on its OWN BOARDS. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $285,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our Steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling, and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have recently agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, via our own ports to and from the North.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

Notice to Shippers of Freight.

THE SEABOARD INLAND AIR LINE

Via Portsmouth, Va.,

IS THE ONLY DIRECT LINE BETWEEN Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and the Carolinas.

It is express in point of speed and safety of Freights, being from

FORTY TO SEVENTY HOURS

in advance of all other lines, and at as low rates.

It offers daily communication with Baltimore, daily communication with Philadelphia.

Five Steamers each week to and from New York.

Two Steamers each week to and from Boston.

It is the only line having these advantages, and by which there is but one handling of freight.

Cars are loaded at the wharves in Portsmouth and are run through to destination.

Be careful to direct your Consignors to ship only

From Baltimore, by the Norfolk or Bay Line Steamers, foot of Union Dock.

From Philadelphia by the Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, or by Clyde's Line, 14 south Delaware Avenue.

From New York, by the Old Dominion Steamship Line, Pier 37 North River.

From Boston, by the Norfolk Steamship Line, end of Central Wharf.

All loss, damages, or overcharges promptly adjusted on application to

WE inaugurated and are the Great through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and South, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand Shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her Interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $40,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

NOTICE!

The Great Inland Air Line Freight

ROUTE,

Via THE RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD,

is the Short Line for Shippers, and you are required so to direct your Freights, or they will be taken by another Route!

To insure your Freight being carried over this Great Inland Air Line safely, direct your consignors to mark your Freight, Care of Rail Road Agent, Portsmouth, Va., or City Point Va., via Raleigh & Gaston Rail Road, and to ship as follows:

FROM BOSTON:

Merchants' & Miner's Line, end of Central Wharf, E. Sampson, Agent.

FROM NEW YORK:

WM. C. NICHOLS, M. D., C. J. BICKHAM, M. D.

The Thirtieth Annual Course of Instruction in this Institution will begin November 11th and end in the following March. Preliminary lectures will be given daily in the charity Hospital commencing October 15th, at which time also the new and extensive rooms for Practical Anatomy will be opened. The facilities of the school, heretofore unsurpassed, have, by the liberality of the State Legislature, been greatly increased during the past season, so that now EVERY CHAIR HAS ATTACHED TO IT A PRACTICAL DEPARTMENT, in which students are taught to observe for themselves the facts set forth in the Lecture Room.

Fees for all the Lectures, $140; Matriculation, (paid but once) $5; Practical Anatomy, $10.—Payment required in advance.

A Cheap Cotton Press.

FARMERS, BEFORE YOU BUY A PRESS OR build a Screw, enquire into the merits of the

GODWIN COTTON PRESS.

Hear what the following reliable gentlemen say:

I have seen Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press work at Mr. P. E. Smith's plantation, and it does all that he says it does in his advertisement and more. I think it superior to any other mode of packing Cotton, and saves both time and labor.

W. R. SMITH.

I have used the above mentioned Press, and consider it the best I ever saw for packing Cotton.

THOS. J. VAUGHAN.

I have packed about 100 bales of Cotton with Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press, and take pleasure in recommending it to the farmers as a great labor-saving machine. It does not cost more than half as much as a Screw, and is worth twice as much.

It is so convenient, and takes fewer hands to do as much work as a Screw. I would pay the price of a Press, rather than allow a man to put up a screw on my place for nothing.

D. EDMONDSON.

I have used the above mentioned Cotton Press, and it does better than a Screw. Takes less hands, does not waste Cotton, and is much cheaper. J. H. CURRY, Sup't W. H. Smith's Plantation.

I have packed about 70 bales with Godwin's Cotton Press, and am certain it is the best, cheapest, most compact and durable Press in existence, costing only half, at first, and lasting twice as long as a Screw. PETER R. SMITH,

I have never seen the Cotton Press of Mr Jno. H. Godwin at work, but have no doubt, from the certificates of the gentlemen above, that it performs all they say of it. I know them to be gentlemen of character and veracity, and that their statements are entitled to credit.

RICHARD H. SMITH.

The last name is one of our most honorable and respectable citizens, well known as a former member of the Legislature. I offer this PRESS as combining more advantages for packing than any now in use; it is adapted to large or small farms, and is so simple and cheap, that any good mechanic can build it. It is well adapted to

WATER-POWER.

It is 10 or 11 feet wide, 3 feet and 3 inches thick; top of frame above ground, 16 feet; highest point of Lever, 18 or 19 feet. The platform on which the bale is turned out, is 10 feet above ground.

Length of box, 10 feet in the clear.

Length of bale 5 feet, by 2 feet 4 inches. Weight 500 or 600 lbs. It is put up flat against the Lint Room, thereby preventing the scattering of the Cotton and need of baskets.

The Press is chiefly built of scantlings.

The Inventor has spared no pains in his experiments to make it practicable, convenient and cheap. I charge $25 for a Single Right.

The total cost, including cover and everything, is about $150. Much of that, farmers are not in the habit of including as cost.

I think I can sell County rights at about $10 by the hundred.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted, &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God."

which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That no convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general, within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

Sec. 5. That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers, and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE

Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing

LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER, which being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause.

You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify. I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.
